

If I were a Wall Street banker, would Congress listen to me?

Who do our kids have to be to get the attention of politicians in Washington? School days are being cut, teachers are being laid off, classrooms are more crowded than ever, and there may be no more art, music or sports programs.

The time to speak up for education and kids is now. Call your members of Congress TODAY. Ask them to include education jobs funding in the emergency supplemental bill.

Call Today

1-866-608-6355

www.educationvotes.nea.org

